According to Mercutio, Queen Mab is a tiny fairy who spends her time filling people with wild fantasies as they sleep.

After reading the original version of Shakespeare’s “Queen Mab” speech, re-read the modern day version to the left and then using a blank sheet of computer paper, draw a rendition of Queen Mab based on Mercutio’s explicit description. Once completed, answer the following questions in order on the BACK of your drawing.

1. According to Mercutio, what are the dreams that Queen Mab delivers for each of the following people?
   a. Lovers dream of...
   b. Courtier (person of the royal court) dream of...
   c. Lawyers dream of...
   d. Ladies dream of...
   e. Second mention of courtiers...
   f. A priest dreams of...
   g. A soldier dreams of...

2. Is Queen Mab the queen of good dreams, bad dreams, or both? Explain...

3. What does Mercutio think of dreams based off of his speech and his exchange with Romeo at the end of the scene?

4. Why do you suppose Mercutio told this story of Queen Mab to Romeo?

5. What kind of person is Mercutio? Why do you think that?
